WELCOME TO THE BLACK CHERRY FAIR 2025

ORGANISED BY CHERTSEY ROTARY

Welcome once again to the fabulous Black Cherry Fair, now in its 585th year. As usual, there is plenty to go round. On Thursday evening, Abbeyfields will come alive with the sounds of fairground rides, joined on Friday by a lineup on the music stage showcasing homespun talent. Saturday kicks off with the traditional procession through the town, with local groups each bringing their own take on the theme 'Classic Cartoons'. The main fair on Saturday will have over 100 stalls, and a full schedule of acts and competitions in the central arena, including the everpopular dog show. As ever, keep an eye on the weather, and dress appropriately! Thanks to the small but dedicated team who put in time and effort to create this event -not only bringing the town together, but also raising support and awareness and for local causes.

The Black Cherry Fair is an annual treat - let's make this year's event the best since 1440 A.D. !

For a great free addition to your day visit Chertsey Museum opposite the Black Cherry Fair. Treat yourself to tea and cake in our lovely garden. We are open 11am to 4pm with live music from 'Some Time Later' from 12.30 – 2.30pm

Chertsey Museum is the local authority museum for the Borough of Runnymede and keeper of the local history our towns and surrounding area. It started telling the borough's story in 1965 and is home to tens of thousands of historic artifacts including a 10th century Viking sword, medieval tiles and stonework from Chertsey Abbey, as well as the nationally important Olive Matthews Costume Collection. On 25th November we are delighted to be celebrating the museum's 60th anniversary.

Whilst at the museum why not view our current fashion exhibition entitled 'High Waists to Romantic Tastes'. A must for Jane Austin fans. Our 'Local Heroes: stories of the Second World War' exhibition highlights experiences of nine ordinary local people and the roles they played in these extraordinary times. Accompanying the exhibition is our Runnymede Bomb Map created from original AFS and ARP reports of bombings across the modern-day Borough of Runnymede.

We wish everyone a thoroughly enjoyable and successful Black Cherry Fair.
